I do not know the consultant's name off the top of my head, but the firm we have hired to assist us is Nexus Pruitt based in Columbia, SC.

Speaking of Nexus Pruitt, someone from their office is planning on reaching out to you soon with a question about the release of data from a legal standpoint.

Tracy,

Our legal team has hired a geographic consultant to assist us with our future legal case. The consultant already has Maptitude for Redistricting installed, and has licenses for a couple of different states, but they do not have South Carolina. We would like to know how we can get them the South Carolina data files for the lowest possible costs whether this would be purchasing the state individually, or getting an additional software license for them. Please let me know the differences in the potential pricing. Thank you in advance for your assistance.
